

Lead pastor position open in Northeast Nebraska community of approximately 25,000 people. Vibrant, innovative non-denominational community church seeks a visionary leader with preaching/teaching skills and to guide the congregation in mission and ministry. The church partners with a Christian school and is strongly committed to global missions and neighborhood ministries. Please contact nenebrpastor@gmail.com for a complete listing and instructions on the application process.