

North Park University welcomes pastors, church staff, seminarians, and lay leaders of all denominations to attend our Inaugural Conference focusing on church communications.

Conference will include presentations on social media, community outreach, youth engagement, web design, and information technology. Come listen to expert workshop leaders and our Keynote Speaker, world-renowned theologian, priest, and author Donald Senior!

Help your congregation realize its full potential with the skills gained from our conference.

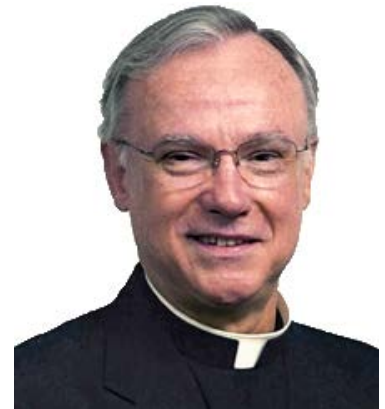

Date: January 12th, 2018

Registration Fee: $119 (Early Bird Special of $99)

All meals, conference materials, and a free copy of "The Gift of Administration" by Donald Senior is included

Use of all on-campus parking lots will be free for all attendees.

Scholarships Available: 50% for all individuals affiliated with a church

Registration link can be accessed Here

If you have questions, contact us our program associate at rmotley@northpark.edu or call 773-244-5286.

Conference will be held on-campus in the Johnson Center; campus map can be accessed with the following link.

Check out our website to see other professional development opportunities and academic programs we offer to church leaders.