Dear Director:

The First Baptist Church of Haddonfield, NJ (ABCUSA) is searching for a Senior Pastor following the retirement of our longtime pastor.

We are seeking someone who preaches the Word, who will provide pastoral care and counseling, who can establish a rapport with youth, and who has a heart for mission.

We are open to considering someone who is ready to graduate or is newly graduated and seeking ordination. It would be great if you could connect us with any of your students who might be interested in this position. Also, perhaps you know of already-established pastors who are considering a new position.

Haddonfield is a small suburb of Philadelphia. The church has a 200+ year history in the town. In non-pandemic times, attendance is around eighty. Currently, we have about two dozen attendees and over one hundred who join in via livestream. We would like to attract more members, of course, especially young families.

Interested persons can view our website firstbaptisthaddonfield.org and also our website designed especially for potential applicants, fbcofh.org

Thank you for your help in this matter. God bless your work in His name.
